

Teaching European Studies

Exchanging Experiences on curricula and teaching methods

Oradea, 28-29 May 2009

PROGRAMME

This 2-day workshop brings together representatives of the work packages 7, 8, and 10 of the SENT network in European Studies. The workshop will successively deal with traditional teaching tools in the field of ES, the development of core curricula and with alternative teaching methods.

Wednesday 27 May 2009

Arrival of participants

Accommodation: Pension "Casa Optima" (www.casa-optima.ro)

20.00 hrs Welcome Dinner - Pension "Casa Optima"

Thursday 28 May 2009

The activities will be at University of Oradea, European Center of Excellence

09.30 Introduction

Ioan HORGĂ, Jean Monnet Professor in Euregional Studies, University of Oradea;
Stefania Baroncelli, Professor of Law, Free University of Bolzano; Sophie Vanhoonacker,
Jean Monnet Professor in Administrative Governance, Maastricht University

10.00 Traditional Teaching Tools in the Field of European Studies

Session 1 - European studies in the member States: an overview on the basis of the results of the questionnaire on teaching tools

European studies in European universities: a statistical analysis

Federico Boffa, Associate professor of economics, University of Macerata

What makes European studies different? Features and contexts

Stefania Baroncelli, Associate professor of law, Free University of Bolzano/Bozen

11.00 Coffee Break

11.30 A cross-disciplinary analysis on teaching tools

Economics: EU economic integration – teaching tools
Grigore Silasi, West University of Timisoara

History: European History tools
Mircea Brie, University of Oradea.

Discussants: Sophie Vanhoonacker, Vanni Boncinelli

13.00 Lunch – University Restaurant

14.00 Towards Core Curricula
Ioan Horga and Mariana Buda, University of Oradea

15.30 Coffee break

16.00 EU – CONSENT: Developing a Teaching Curriculum on EU Deepening and Widening – Experiences and Challenges
Gaby Umbach, Senior Research Associate, Jean Monnet Lehrstuhl für Politikwissenschaft, University of Cologne

17.30 Conclusions of Day One

19.30 Dinner in one restaurant from ORADEA

Friday 29 May 2009

Pension Casa Optima:

09.30 Alternative Approaches to Teaching European Studies: EuroSim and Model United Nations Simulation Conferences
N.N. University of Bremen

11.00 Coffee break

11.30 Teaching Europe through international and transdisciplinary projects
Ann-Christina Lauring Knudsen, Associate Professor, Århus University

- 13.00 Lunch – Pension Casa Optima
- 14.00 Follow-up: Next Steps for the workpackages 7, 8, 10
Ioan Horga, Stefania Baroncelli, Sophie Vanhoonacker
- 16.00 Conclusion
- 17.00 Visit of the City
- 20.0 Concluding dinner near Oradea